

Richard Carpentier – Chair, Research Ethics Board, Hôpital Montfort, Ottawa

Principal Investigator for a project funded by the CIHR: Canadian Collaboration for Child Health: Efficiency and Excellence in Ethical Review (CHEER).

He is the Chair of the Research Ethics Committee at Montfort Hospital in Ottawa and an associate professor at the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Sherbrooke.

He has worked at Health Canada and co-founded volunteer organizations including Suicide-Action Montréal and Hameau des Cultures for people with Alzheimer's in Magog.

